FILIBUSTER GERM THREATENS SPREAD TO SENATE BILLS

LITTLE HOPE OF MUCH MA-JOR LEGISLATION BEFORE
END OF SESSION

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 24.—Facing adjournment a week from tomorrow and with the filibuster germ
that practically killed Boulder Canyon dam legislation for the present session, spreading to other controversial measures, Congress
entered today upon a program to clean up as many bills as it can
but with little prospect of passing much additional major legislation.

Although the Swing-Johnson bill
to dam the Colorado river at Boulder Canyon was due to come up again today in the Senate at 2 p.
m., after its sponsors were blocked in their efforts to bring it to a vote by a three-Senator filibuster
during a thirty-hour session, there appeared to be little prospect of action
since Republican leaders had planned to displace it two hours later
with the alien property return measure.

Once laid aside in the senate, the bill will stand virtually no chance of a vote in either House at this session, since the house steering committee had decided that it will not be taken up in the House
unless acted upon in the Senate.

Meanwhile, under an agreement
reached at another night session
the Senate had planned to devote its first two hours today to consideration of other subjects, including the Tyson emergency officers'
retirement bill, which Republican leaders hoped to obtain an agreement to take up the administration's prohibition and customs reorganization measure.

Johnson Has Lost Hope.
Senator Johnson, Republican, of California, who has led a vigorous fight for the Boulder Canyon bill had practically abandoned his hope for a vote when the long Senation session was brought to a halt early last night on a motion of Senator Curtis, the Republican leader
for an executive session, 15 minutes before the time which previously had been fixed for a recess.
After two and a half hours of recess, the Senate went back at 8 p.
m. for its second successive night
session, but considered only uncontested bills in accordance with a prior agreement.

Senators Ashurst and Cameron
of Arizona, and Phipps of Colorado, who had conducted one of the most prolonged filibusters in the history of the Senate in opposition to the dam bill, promised a renewal
of the fight when the measure
came up again today.

President Accused Deceptive Methods

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 24.—President
Coolidge was accused today by Representative Byrns of Tennessee, ranking Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee,
of practicing a "deceptive policy"
in the submission of budget estimates to Congress.

In a speech prepared for delivery in the House, the Tennesseean declared that in many instances
the appropriations requested in the original estimates are insufficient to carry on the activities of the government and at the time of submission it "is clearly understood that the necessary amounts
will be carried in deficiency bills
to be passed at a later session."

"The action of the President on February 2, in increasing the ration allowance of the army, is a striking example," he said. "The result is that the regular annual appropriations show a lesser
amount than is actually required
or expected to be appropriated and the administration takes credit for economies which are wholly fictitious."

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 24.—Senator
Borah and his colleagues on the Foreign Relations Committee were told plainly by the administration
today that if they want to investigate the American policy toward Mexico and Nicaragua, they should begin at home.

As a result, action again was postponed on Mr. Borah's proposal for a committee tour of the two Southern republics this summer
and some committee members indicated that they would redouble
their efforts to kill the project entirely.

Administration is Opposed Borah Plan

By the Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 24.—After consulting with President Coolidge,
Secretary Kellogg has written Chairman Borah indicating that the administration sees no necessity of the projected visit to Mexico and Nicaragua by the Senate
Foreign Relations committee.

The Secretary, who is ill at his home here, said the committee could obtain full information regarding the situation in those two countries
from the State Department officials who were directed to appear before the committee at its session today.

MILLER MOVES MOODY OVER LINE WAS GOVERNOR

By The Associated Press.
Laredo, Texas, Feb. 22.—
Lieut. Governor Barry Miller of Dallas was governor
of Texas for about fifteen seconds today.

During the meeting of American and Mexican officials on the International bridge in connection with the joint celebration of Washington's birthday, the Lieutenant Governor shoved the sorely-thatched young governor across the Mexican line. Miller thus by law attained for a few seconds the dignity of governorship in the governor's "absence from the state."

Moody was standing near
the concrete post on the bridge marking the international boundary line to shake hands with A. P. Carrillo, Mexican General. Lt-Governor Miller here, with members of the Fortieth Legislature suddenly pushed Moody over into Mexico
while the crowd laughed.

OPERATIONS ARE NEAR INTERESTING DEPTH SHALLOW AREA

DeArman Bros. have set casing
on the T. G. Towns No. 1 shallow
well in the Chambers Creek district at 1,244 feet. Eight and one-quarter inch casing was used.

The G. C. Kent Hardy No. 11, just across the Kerens road from the T. G. Towns well has reached a depth below 1,700 feet and have not found the shallow paying sand
yet. The mud pump was being repaired on the G. C. Kent Hardy No.
12. Depth Monday evening was around 1,100 feet.

The Texas Company was coring
on the Cheney B-1, south of the Powell field at 3,013 feet when last reported. The well will be drilled about 50 feet deeper, it was asked.
The Sun Company is reported to have reached the bottom of the hole in the Swink C-1, in the Richland field. The hole is now 5,280 feet and will be drilled to the 5,500
foot depth, according to a recent unofficial report.

The Texas Company and the Humble Oil and Refining Company were closed Tuesday afternoon in honor of George Washington's urb today. No cause for the suicide was assigned.

Secretary Kellogg's communication apparently did not cause Chairman Borah to change his mind as to the desirability of his committee going to Central America during the recess of Congress,
and he was prepared to press for action on his resolution.

Harsh Talk in Senate.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 24.—The methods of Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, in conducting the campaign funds inquiry were assailed
in the Senate today by Senator Robinson, Republican, of Indiana
who in turn was accused by Reed
of making a "cowardly insinuation
that he does not dare to make openly."

Robinson assailed particularly the lone hand investigation of Reed
in Indiana, as chairman of the Senate Campaign Funds Investigation Committee, declaring the Missouri
had basked there alone "in the sunlight of publicity."

He also opposed granting Reed's
committee authority to hold hearings during the Congressional recess, declaring that although he did not know that Reed would do
so, it would give him the opportunity "to go into the States and get delegates to the National Democratic Convention."

"Insinuation is the last refuge of a coward," Reed shouted when Robinson had concluded. "A manly man stands up like a man and says what he is going to say."

Further Probe of Judge.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Further investigation into the general conduct of Federal Judge Frank Cooper,
of the Northern New York district, was ordered today by the House Judiciary Committee, which is considering impeachment charges against him.

WITNESSES TELL OF KNOWING STONE AND THAT HE WAS GOOD

KANSAS CITY RESIDENTS
CHARACTER WITNESSES
FOR ALLEGED BANDIT

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 24.—Admitting that William Stone fired
the shot that killed Roscoe Wilson,
young Majestic Theatre treasurer,
but contending that the robbery
was planned with the desire that there should be no bloodshed, the joint confession of Stone and Bob Silvers, alias Cecil Chambers, was read shortly after noon today in Criminal District Court.

The statement was admitted as evidence by Judge Hoesy after it was bitterly fought by W. H. Tolbert and Jesse E. Brown, named by the Court to defend Stone, who is now on trial. Silvers' trial has been delayed until next Monday.

Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 24.—Two character witnesses for the defendant were placed on the witness stand this morning in the trial of W. O. Stone, charged with robbery with fire arms. He is alleged to have participated in the hold-up and killing of Roscoe Wilson, Majestic Theatre treasurer.

T. C. Coffene, formerly of Kansas City, where Stone lived, knew him there and said that his reputation for being a peaceful and law-abiding citizen was "very good."

"You don't know what he has been doing since January 15?" he was asked on cross examination by District Attorney Martin.

"No," replied the witness.

"If you knew he was a hijacker
would you still say his reputation
was good?"

"No, I'd say it was not good."

That he knew Stone in Kansas City as a man of good reputation was stated by F. N. Blevins.

"Did you know him when he went under the name of Wilson or Barnes?" asked the prosecution.

"No sir."

The defense objected, declaring that there had been no evidence to show that he ever used the name of "Barnes" and the objection was sustained.

Blevins said he did not know that the defendant was ever known as
"Roy Wilson," except from hearsay.

"Well if you would know that he was a hijacker, would you still say his reputation was good?" asked
the District Attorney.

"I would," replied Blevins.

Policeman Defense Witness.
Policeman A. C. McClain, one of the witnesses who accompanied the district attorney to Sulphur, Okla., to identify the two suspects held there testified for the defense. He said that Stone was the man he saw sitting in the automobile just before the shooting.

The automobile is the same one which other witnesses have said
was used by the bandits to make their escape.

Cross examined McClain said he walked several hundred feet from the automobile before he heard the shot fired. His evidence was offered by the defense in its attempt to show that Stone remained in the car while Silvers got out and took the money from Wilson after shooting him to death.

P. D. Meggison testified he saw a man board a moving automobile
after the shooting.

"Is this the man?" he was asked by defense counsel.

"In my opinion he is not," said
Meggison.

When cross examined by District
Attorney Martin, Meggison said that he believed it was Silvers who got into the automobile.

STATE RESTS IN BUTLER CASE BEING TRIED GROESBECK

NINETEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY BE-ING TRIED FOR KILLING AT COUNTY FAIR

Special to the Sun.
Groesbeck, Texas, Feb. 24.—
Thirteen State witnesses and seven defense witnesses were called in rapid succession Wednesday in the first day of testimony in the Hugh David Butler murder case in which a 19-year-old boy is accused of the fatal shooting of two young farmers.

The State reserved more than two score eye-witnesses to the shooting, but most of these called today practically the same story.

Taking of testimony started at 9 a. m. and shortly after noon Special Prosecutor C. H. Machen and County Attorney Carl Cannon were so well pleased with their case that they rested without calling other witnesses.

The defense called a number of witnesses who told of trouble between Hoptoe Butler and Lester
Bolton before the fatal fair ground
shooting, seeking to prove that Bolton and Ben Long, his brother-
in-law, went to the fair grounds expecting trouble with the Butler
boy.

Butler himself, who is 19 years
old, will take the stand in his own defense Thursday morning. He will be his own chief witness and Defense Attorney Ira Lawley expects to show that Butler shot, believing his own life in danger.

Witness after witness for the State testified that Butler, after shooting Ben Long, asked Bolton to pull his shirt tail out to prove he had no gun and that after this was done Butler, with an oath, fired on Bolton. The crowds had been ordered by Butler to stand back,
the witnesses declared, and Porter
Brown, former county official, said
he pleaded with Butler to desist
but that he disregarded his pleading and fired on Bolton, who also
was pleading for his life.

Judge J. Ross' Bell announced that the case against the same defendant charging murder of Ben Long, has been postponed until term of court and the special venue of 100 excused. That case had been set for Thursday.

Crowds filled the court room throughout the day, but there was no disorder.

Butler Jury Farmers.
Special to the Sun.

Groesbeck, Texas, Feb. 23.—A farmers' jury is trying Hugh David (Hoptoe) Butler for the alleged slaying of Lester Bolton, at the county fair last fall. All of the jurymen are middle-aged men, and all have families.

J. C. Roach, one of the jurymen, told his questioners when he was being selected, that he knew the defendant and his family, knew
both of the deceased and their families, and had known all for many years. He was accepted by both sides with only little questioning.

The jurymen are:

W. G. Stone, Mart; J. E. Care-
dine, Della; A. P. Shelton, Thorton;
J. H. Wade, Coolidge; W. J.
Mouzingo, Munger; C. D. Shreve,
Thornton; J. C. Roach, Box Church;
W. D. Hart, Mt. Calm; W. C. Fun-
derberg, Kossie; I. A. Bates, Thornton; Lee Copeland, Coolidge,
and L. M. Kuykendall, Farrar.

Seventy-four of the venire of 125
was called before the 12 of "his peers" were selected, and of this number 40 were excused by the court, eight by the State and 15 by

THE GOOD ROADS QUESTION

The Corsicana Daily Sun and the Corsicana Semi-Weekly Morning
Light have been fighting for good roads in Navarro county for over twenty years.

These two papers have gone on record as being for any legitimate plan whereby the county will receive a system of hard surfaced highways.

These papers are for good roads.
They are not for any one precinct
against another precinct.

These papers will support any precinct in a good roads campaign
and any precinct that puts on such a campaign will find these two papers ready and willing to do their part for its success.

Of course the Sun and Light
want to see good roads in every part of the county. The past record will show that these papers have fought heart and soul for a county-wide system of roads in two elections.

But if a roads campaign is put on by precincts the Sun and Light are going to do all in their power to assist each precinct to get the roads regardless of the part of the county in which it is situated.

It is not a question of aligning one precinct against another. The question is to get good roads. The county-wide bond issue has failed twice. If the precinct idea of voting good roads is going to be attempted in the county the Sun
and Light is going to support each and every precinct when they put
on their good roads campaign.

Please bear in mind that the Sun and Light are for good roads and when they go on record supporting one precinct in such a campaign
they are not against the precinct
not included in the voting.

For one time let us lay aside our personal differences and vote some good roads bonds. Disagreement of individuals has cost the tax payers of Navarro county many thousands of dollars and until the voters wake up to this fact, study
the situation for themselves and vote their own minds it will continue to cost them much money.

CONGRESS AND PRIZE RING

Three recent fist fights in congress have led Representative John P. Carey of New York to introduce a resolution in the house calling for the appointment of "a joint and several committee of the senate
and house on challenges, bouts,
fights and duels;" and to a resolution by Representative James A.
Gallivan of Massachusetts, proposing a boxing board or commission
to promote future battles.

This is hardly the method to prevent or regulate these disorderly diversions which have become so popular in both branches of the national legislature. What is needed is centralization of power in one man. Baseball has its Landis, the movies their Will Hays and Broadway theatrical producers are looking around for anyone who can help them out of their present predicament. Congress needs, not a commission, but a commissioner
who will see that bouts are fought fairly and to a finish and only on sufficient provocation. The new director, if chosen, should have strength to enforce his decisions.
Some ex-champion of the prize
ring might accept now that retired naval officers are willing to battle with rum runners.

Yet congressmen should not be blamed too much. The session is near an end. They are tired. They are nervous. They lack exercise.
If athletics were pursued with as much enthusiasm in congress as in college, there would be a different atmosphere in the two houses.
Rivalries might be fought out on the gridiron or on the tennis courts
and with a great deal better manners. But so far there is no urgent need of change. No one is in the hospital. Those deadly lunges have all been gestures rather than blows.

SIXTY-EIGHT BILLION

The total income of the American people last year is estimated at $68,000,000,000. Mere mention of such a vast income is bound to provoke in many quarters the querry, "Where does the money go?"
Within limits the statistician has answered the question.

Of the national income half went to retail stores, $18,000,000,000 went
for food, tobacco and soft drinks, $750,000,000 was spent in barber shops, $2,000,000,000 was spent for automobiles and motor trucks,
more billions went for federal,
state and local taxes and still more for the construction of homes
and other buildings.

It has also been figured out that the average American each year spends $2.58 for diamonds, twenty-two cents for dentifrices, $4.15 for near beer, six cents for ink, $1.30
for pickles, $3.00 for ice cream,
but only ninety cents for eggs,
$3.75 for toilet soap, $1.10 for books,
$27 for joy riding, $1.29 for religion, $5 for jewelry, fifteen cents
for art, eleven cents for health
service, sixty-five cents for coffins, $10 for public schools, $1.85 for shirts, $45 for food luxuries, and eight cents for salaries for college professors.

On the strength of these figures persons contemplating going into business or entering a profession
will avoid for financial reasons
ink manufacturer, book publishing,
religion, college professorship, art
and health service.

This American budget explains
why the Russian communists and their many socialistic predecessors
have never been able to sell their Utopian schemes to the American people.

THWARTING CENSORSHIP

Censorship means meddling by officials incompetent to discriminate intelligently, but unhappily
this evil is being thrust upon the public, because so much that is naughty for the sake of nastiness preceded it.

A little good judgment and taste
on the part of publishers and producers would cut the ground from under censorship purists; the continued production and publication of crudely filthy plays, books, magazines and movies will strengthen their position.

Producers and publishers are in a position to make censorship demands ridiculous by refusing to promote or give publicity to plays
and writings that appeal to nothing
but morbid tastes and degenerate minds. If they fail to act on their responsibility, they will have only themselves to blame if they find their business in the hands of over-pious and paid-to-be-pious snoopers and censors. They cannot afford, the foes of censorship cannot afford, and the interests of literature and drama cannot afford, to have the records of producers and publishers indefensible.

There is some merit in the theory of the movie, theatrical and publishing world that a free people should have the right to see and read what satisfies their own peculiar tastes without molestation
from those of different tastes, but the flaw in this theory is the belief of many, in whom the misanthropic instinct is strong, that the tastes of others menace their own tastes. Self-preservation is the first law of nature.

The principal trouble with censorship is that the censor is too often picked because of his known prejudices, bias, intolerance and real. Those qualified for the office of censor of public morals and amusements refuse to force their own tastes upon their fellows.

Isolation of those living in the rural districts is another charge against the impassable road conditions. Bad roads have much to answer for in Navarro county.

The prosperity of the county
would be increased many times over if a system of good roads were available.

You fare better if you have all
the childhood diseases in childhood.
This is especially true of swell
head.

There's nothing new under the sun unless you count the definition of the word "effeminate."

To thine own self be true and a lot of folks will call you a narrow-minded tightwad.

The reason some people are "invalids" is because they have unlimited time to spare.

Now is the time to start that early garden.

SHALLOW DISTRICT GETTING GOOD PLAY WITH MANY TESTS

The Magnolia Company has spudded in on their Stout No. 1,
on the Kerens road in the Chambers Creek district and were drilling around 200 feet Wednesday morning. The Magnolia Rufus Hardy well No. 3, in this district
southwest of the Kent Hardy tract, has found some good showings of oil, it was reported.
The plug was drilled the first of the week and bailing out has been under way the last day or so.

Oil sand has been found in the
G. C. Kent Hardy No. 12, between 1,440 and 1,490 feet, it was learned at the Kent office. The Kent No.
11, which is near the Kerens road
was drilling in shale at 1,800.

The DeArman Bros. will drill plug on the T. G. Towns No. 1 Thursday. This well is within 150 feet of the Kerens road and casing
was set at 1,244.

After spending a couple of weeks
drilling out a bailer on the Swick
C-1, the Sun Company has finally reached the bottom of the hole and was drilling around 5,300 feet in hard shale Wednesday morning.
The well is now 30 feet over a mile deep.

The Humble Oil and Refining Company was drilling at 4,650 feet on the Ella Dodge No. 19 in the Mex-ia field in shale and boulders. This well will be drilled to a depth
around 1,600 feet and will be made a gasser if possible.

STINGING REBUKE GIVEN INVISIBLE EMPIRE MEMBERS

By Associated Press.

Lyons, Ga., Feb. 22.—Declaring
"there is no place among white men for invisible empires," Superior Court Judge R. N. Har-deman yesterday urged the Toombs county grand jury to investigate thoroughly the flogging of Win-bury E. Brown, an attorney.

"The whipping post was abolished by the Anglo-Saxon race and I tell you it will not be re-established in Georgia," he said in his charge. "I never liked the words
'Imperial' and 'Empire' as applied to government, and God knows
there is no place among white men
for invisible empires."

"Are there men in Toombs county, who, with covered face, not under oath can do more righteously or justly than you? You can't indict without evidence, yet men can cover their faces, sit in Altamaha Swamp and indict and do more than you have a right to do."

Brown was flogged last Christmas Eve, shortly after he had admitted in the prosecution of several men charged with being members of a hooded band which killed Willie Wilson.

PRESIDENT HEARD OVER RADIO WHILE MAKING ADDRESS

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 22.—From the historic Chamber of the House of Representatives, the voice of Calvin Coolidge today reached out over the Nation and into foreign lands to sound the commanding note in tribute to America's first president.

Speaking at a joint session of the Congress, Mr. Coolidge declared before the House audience of the highest in American official life that Washington had come to personify the republic, and that he was "a builder, a creator, a man with a national mind."

The President began speaking at 12:30 p. m. The largest radio hookup ever attempted, 12 stations, broadcast his words and endeavored to carry the speech across both the seas.

When the President entered the assembly rose and applauded. Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the George Washington Bi-Centennial Commission, then introduced the President.

Another rising ovation greeted the President as he began reading his speech from manuscript amid the clicking of a battery of cameras in the gallery.

The President described Washington as a man who had a "national mind."

"He was consistently warning his countrymen of the danger of settling problems in accordance with sectional interests," Mr. Coolidge said. "His ideas in regard to the opening of our Western territory were thought out primarily for the benefit of the nation. It has been said that he would have been the greatest man in America had there been no revolutionary war."

It was with clear vision that the first president looked upon religion, Mr. Coolidge continued, because for him there was little in it of emotionalism.

"He placed it on a firmer, more secure foundation, and stated the benefits which would accrue to his country as the result of faith in spiritual teachings," the President said. "He recognized that religion was the main support of free institutions. Without bigotry, without intolerance, he appeals to the highest spiritual nature of mankind. His genius has filled the earth."

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Official and unofficial Washington, led by President Coolidge, set the example for the nation in celebrating the 155th anniversary of the birth of George Washington. While scores of meetings of patriotic organizations and other ceremonies were getting under way early in the day, arrangements were being perfected to carry the voice of the President during his Washington birthday address before a joint session of the House and Senate, by radio to the four corners of the country and Europe.

Untold millions were given an opportunity to hear the President speak, shortly after noon, through an unprecedented chain of 42 broadcasting stations.

Thousands of others across the seas were prospective listeners under arrangements made by two stations, KDA at Pittsburgh, and WGY at Schenectady, to transmit the address over the Atlantic and Pacific.

First Personal Appearance.

The capital ceremonies setting in motion plans for the 200th anniversary celebration of Washington's birth in 1732, was to start at 12:35 p. m. Eastern Standard time, and the President's address soon thereafter was to mark his first personal appearance before the Sixty-Ninth Congress during its nearly two years of existence.

The House chamber, as is the custom for joint sessions, was the scene of the principal ceremony for the day, observed here as a legal holiday, and although government departments and business houses generally closed down, Congress planned to forego ahead with its legislative program as soon as the President's address was over.

Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador, Major General Chas. P. Summerall, chief of staff, and many others, assumed leading roles at other celebrations.

British Ambassador Pays Tribute.

In an address prepared for delivery during his presentation to Adelaide Emley, a school girl, of a gold medal for her essay on William Pitt, the "Great Commoner," of England, Sir Esme paid tribute to both Pitt and Washington.

"It always seems to me," he said, "that there was something akin in the characters of the great American whose birthday we are gathered to celebrate today and this Englishman who so passionately strove to preserve America for men of British race and of English speech."

"Washington," he continued, "saw his efforts to found a great independent country crowned with success. Pitt saw his apparently ending in failure when the rulers of Great Britain followed a policy which he believed must lead to a rupture between the mother country and the American colonies."

In his address, prepared for delivery at a joint meeting of the Sons, Daughters and children of the American revolution, General Summerall discussed Washington's "almost prophetic vision as to our national defense," and quoted his famous saying, "That to be prepared for war is one of the most of actual means of preserving peace."

FLAMES DESTROYED HAVENER HOME NORTH EDGE OF CORSICANA

Awakening and finding the roof of the house falling in, one solid mass of flames was the experience of G. W. Havener and family about 1:30 Tuesday morning, who reside across the T. & N. V. railroad tracks on North Beaton street.

A fire alarm was immediately sounded and firemen from the Central Station rushed to the scene. They were too late to save very much of the Havener home, but prevented the flames from spreading to about six other houses that sparks and shingles were falling on.

The house, a six or seven-room bungalow, was valued at $4,000, with insurance covering $2,000 of that amount. The house was practically a total loss. Furniture in the house was valued at $1,500 with $1,000 covered by insurance.

Dickson Rubber Company gave Fire Chief Elmer Keith a $5 bill after the fire was out to buy the fire boys' breakfast. This was in appreciation of the splendid work rendered by the fire departments in preventing the fire from spreading.

Record Price Paid For Heavy Steers

By Associated Press.
Kansas City, Feb. 23.—The highest price since November, 1925, was paid for heavy steers on the Kansas City exchange today. One load averaging 1,491 pounds, brought $12.55 a hundred pounds.

Congress was coming through remarkably well, judging from reports received from radio listeners up to the time this dispatch was received.

Even owners of crystal sets could listen in on the President's speech, as it was picked up from over the Atlantic and re-broadcast from the high power stations of the British Broadcasting Company.

Heard in Berlin.

By Associated Press.
New York, Feb. 22.—President Coolidge's speech in Washington today was heard "clear and strong" in Berlin, said a cablegram received by the National Broadcasting Company this afternoon.

IS THERE NO RELIEF FROM SKIN TORTURE?

Must I Continue to Suffer the Unbearable Itching?

Are you one of those unfortunate ones who are going through life suffering with a skin disease, making you uncomfortable, making you less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep? You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years it has been giving relief to many forms of skin disease. Thousands of letters of gratitude prove its worth.

"I feel so happy for what S.S.S. has done for me that I want others to know about it. I suffered twenty long years from eczema. At times the itching was unbearable. During that time, I used all kind of salves without receiving any real benefit. After taking six bottles of S.S.S., I was cured of this dreadful disease. I recommend S.S.S. to anyone suffering from eczema, because I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me."—Josephus Fretz, Builders and Sailors Home, Quincy, Ill.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

MUCH EXCITEMENT RESULT SHOOTING ON COMMERCE ST.

Carl Stewart, negro undertaker, received a pistol wound in the right thigh Wednesday afternoon about 1:25 o'clock in an altercation with Robert Rogers in front of Rogers' place of business on North Commerce street. It is said that the trouble is a culmination of a feud of long standing.

It is not thought that the wound of Stewart will prove serious.

Rogers was taken to the Navarro County courthouse where he surrendered to county officers. He was taken before County Attorney L. J. Woods, and then remanded to the Navarro county jail. His bond was fixed by County Attorney Woods at $1,500.

Rogers stated that Stewart fired at him first and alleges that he was so close that his hand was powder burned.

The shooting caused considerable excitement and within a few minutes a large crowd of spectators gathered.

Rogers is a proprietor of a restaurant.

Special to the Sun.

Crosshook, Texas, Feb. 23.—Limestone county may not be the state capital but 244 state officials live in this county, according to Lee Allen, county clerk, who has sent in that number of names for the governor to appoint to notary public commissions.

The names will be presented by Representative G. W. Black to Governor Dan Moody for appointment, who in turn will send them to the senate for confirmation.

Under a new ruling notaries may serve at once, not waiting until June 1 to begin their commissions.

MERKEL RANCHMEN TO EXHIBIT THEIR HEREFORDS AGAIN

Special to the Sun.
Fort Worth, Feb. 23.—W. L. Largent and Son of Merkel for their twenty second consecutive year will bring registered Herefords to the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. The entry list for the show will be held March 5 to 12 has just been received by Secretary-Manager J. B. Davis.

The Largents are nationally known for the purebred white-faced cattle they have raised. Their blue ribbon herd has just returned from a triumphant trip to the National Western Livestock Show at Denver, Colo. Several firsts and were won along with the grand championship in the cow class.

"From what I can learn the stock show in Fort Worth will be the best it has ever been," says a representative from Largent which accompanied the entry list of the blue ribbon herd.

Many of the breeds have for years exhibited at the Stock Show. This year will find several new ones including some that are bringing their livestock from points outside of Texas.

Lincoln's Tribute To Washington

This being the birth-month of both Washington and Lincoln, and the birthday of Lincoln having just passed, and that of Washington now here, it has occurred to me that the following eulogy, which Lincoln then obscure and unknown to fame in 1842, paid to Washington, will be appreciated by any who may have not heretofore seen same, Lincoln said:

"This is the 110th anniversary of the birthday of Washington. We are met to celebrate this day. Washington is the mightiest name on earth—long since mightiest in the cause of civil liberty; still mightiest in moral reform. On that name an eulogy is expected. It cannot be. To add brightness to the sun or glory to the name of Washington is alike impossible. Let none attempt it. In solemn awe pronounce the name and in its majestic splendor, leave it shining on."

The text of this unknown example of Lincoln's eloquence was found in Washington by Lucien High Alexander of Philadelphia, who gave it to the Associated Press. An account of the ceremony at which Lincoln spoke was contained in the copy of the Sangamon Journal, published at Springfield on February 25, 1842. The tribute to Washington was the final paragraph of an address upon another subject and the address in full was published in the Journal of March 26.

I am giving this to the paper because of its simplicity, its eloquence and its beauty.

Respectfully submitted,
R. R. OWEN.

RESOLUTION WOULD PLACE TEXAS CITIES UNDER MILITARY LAW

REPRESENTATIVES H O O T DOWN MEASURE REGARDING SUNDAY LAW

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—An effort to invest Governor Dan Moody with power to invoke martial law against Sunday operation of theaters in large Texas cities was howled down in the House of Representatives today.

Whistles, jeers and shouts greeted the reading of a resolution introduced by Representative B. L. Shirley, "by request," deploring alleged violation of what was styled the "sacred law" of Sunday closing in Port Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and El Paso, and seeking intervention of the Governor to enforce the law. A vociferous "aye" supported Representative Williamson's motion to table the resolution. Governor Moody would have been empowered to "declare martial law in cities where necessary" to effect strict Sunday closing.

Representative Williamson of San Antonio declared that "such a resolution is not worth wasting time on."

Many Want to Talk. Members from all parts of the House popped up and shouted for recognition. Representative George Purl of Dallas told the speaker he would "like to make a few pious remarks." He was prevented in the confusion.

Representative Shirley said his merely was introducing the resolution because some one had not named asked him to, and that he personally favored closing all theaters on Sunday or letting them all stay open.

"Is a question of democracy," Shirley said. "If the big town shows can violate the law, it is not fair to the little towns."

The resolution itself, however, was confined to provisions for getting all Sunday theaters closed.

A pending bill by Representative Sheats would repeal the Sunday closing law so as to give small town theaters the same advantage now enjoyed by those of the larger cities.

No Constitutional Meet.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—The House today voted down the Senate resolution by Stuart to call a constitutional convention for Texas.

The resolution would have submitted to popular vote the question of holding a convention in September and would have provided the location on the same ballot of three delegates from each Senatorial district to help frame a new state constitution.

Vote against the resolution was 22 to 20 on a motion by Representative Sam Gates of Ruge to table.

Love Speaks For Pro Enforcement

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—Declaring that "every bootlegger is a traitor," Senator Tom Love of Dallas today defended prohibition in an address favoring repeal of the law excluding evidence, illegally obtained from the trial of criminal cases.

His speech was in answer to intimations from opponents of the repealing bill that it was being supported by strict prohibitionists merely because it would permit more liberties in gathering evidence in whiskey cases.

Senator Love declared that Dallas and many other counties had enforced prohibition before national prohibition and that national prohibition could be enforced because "where there's a will, there's a way."

Senator Wirtz, author of the measure which it is sought to repeal replied that if every bootlegger was a traitor, because he violated the constitution, every constable who illegally searches a home or vehicle was a traitor.

Senator Holbrook of Galveston declared that the bill was an entering wedge for legislation that might sweep away all of the provisions of the constitution and Senator Price declared that invasion of a man's castle or home has never been permitted by law and never would be the law, despite legislation to the contrary.

ONLY FRAGMENTS OF MAN'S BODY IS FOUND AFTER BLAST

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED QUARTS OF NITROGLYCERINE EXPLODED LATE MONDAY

By Associated Press.

Borger, Texas, Feb. 23.—Only fragments of Homer Russell's body have been recovered following the explosion of 1,800 quarts of nitroglycerine at the magazine plant of the Independent Torpedo Company here late yesterday afternoon. No trace has yet been found of Davis, who is said to have been with Russell at the time of the explosion occurred.

The prairie fire which was started by the explosion, which for a time threatened two other large magazines in the vicinity, was still burning Tuesday morning, having been whipped in an opposite direction by a brisk west wind.

Russell is survived by his widow living in Amarillo. His former home was in Winfield, Kansas.

EXPLOSION KILLS THREE PIPE LINE WORKERS WEDNESDAY

By Associated Press.

Quanah, Texas, Feb. 23.—Three men, unidentified, were killed and a score or more badly injured by an explosion of a 12-inch gas main two miles north of Quanah shortly before noon today.

The explosion occurred as a gang of nearly 100 men were working in an open ditch, replacing the 12-inch main of the Northern Texas Utilities Company (an Upham concern) with a 16-inch main and every man was blown out of the ditch by the force of the blast except two, who were burned to a cinder where they fell in the trench.

Two men were blown over a big motor truck and one of them, apparently stunned by the fall, burned to death where he fell. The other, a flaming torch, kept rolling until he extinguished the flames and this saved his life.

Rescue crews and ambulances were at work at 11:30 a. m. and no adequate check of the men had been made, nor had any of the dead been recovered.

The men were employed by the Hope Engineering Company. The cause of the leak or the manner in which it became ignited has not been ascertained.

Checks made just after noon placed the casualties of the gas line explosion at three dead and five seriously injured, according to telephone reports from the Northern Texas Utilities Company's Quanah office.

None of the dead have been identified but the injured are: Fred Johnson, Persimmon, T. H. Cole, Quanah; W. A. Fain, Quanah; J. T. Ferguson, Quanah; William Burney, address unknown.

OPENING SESSION LEAGUE MISSIONARY INSITUTE MONDAY

Fifty young people from the Navarro County League Union attended the opening session of the Missionary Institute held in the Educational Building of the First Methodist church Monday evening.

The institute is being conducted by Dr. D. L. Mumpower, returned medical missionary from Africa, and Rev. J. D. F. Williams, conference secretary of the Epworth League.

Report from the other chapters in the Union stated that as soon as the roads became passable, more would be in attendance. The institute will continue through Friday night.

The hour for the regular mid-week prayer service has been advanced fifteen minutes this week in order that those attending that service might hear Dr. Mumpower relate some of his experiences in Africa at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The service will begin at 7:15 instead of 7:30, according to Dr. F. P. Culver, pastor of the First Methodist church.

That necessitated his removal to a hospital at Laredo yesterday.

Senator Wood, ill when the Legislature excursion train reached Laredo, was taken to a hospital but he soon rallied, returning with other members of the party.

Pests Bill Passed.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—A Senate bill to provide quarantine measures against the potato weevil and other pests was finally passed in the House today.

The measure would empower county commissioners courts to hold hearings to determine whether or not quarantine exists, and then apply to the Commissioner of Agriculture for the necessary quarantine procedure.

Governor and Solons Back.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—Tired but jubilant, Governor Dan Moody and Texas Legislature this morning returned to Austin from Laredo where they celebrated with Mexican dignitaries Washington's birthday.

A CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN

Comment on the Uniform International Sunday School Lesson for February 27, 1927.

Read Galatians V.

WM. SOUTHERN, JR.

MAKING THE COMMUNITY CHRISTIAN.

(Temperance Lesson).—Gal. 5:13-25.

Gal. 5:13. For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be servants one to another.

14. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

15. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16. But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would.

18. But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness.

20. Idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, parties.

21. Envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I did forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that they who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22. But the fruit of the Spirit is hope, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness.

23. Meekness, self-control; against such there is no law.

24. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof.

25. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk.

Golden Text.—Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even prove them.

—Eph. 5:14.

(Text is from the American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible copyright, 1901, by Thomas Nelson & Sons, and used by permission.)

A very good friend of mine objected strenuously the other day to the use of the words "A Christian Gentleman" as a designation of high compliment. His objection lay in the idea that a man might be a gentleman in every sense of the word and still not be a Christian.

I agreed with him to the extent of admitting that there might properly be Mohammedan gentlemen, Confucian gentlemen, Japanese gentlemen or Agnostic gentlemen, yet I could see no impropriety in pointing out a man as a "Christian Gentleman" if he deserves the title and high compliment.

The conversation naturally brought up several very interesting questions. Can a man be a good Christian, and not be a gentleman? What is a gentleman anyhow? May one be a gentleman under some circumstances and in certain company and not in other surroundings? Can a man be a real gentleman and not do unto others as he would have others do unto him? This is the great commandment in Christianity.

The definition of gentleman in the Century dictionary reads "A man of good breeding, courtesy and kindness; hence a man distinguished for fine sense of honor, strict regard for his obligations and consideration for the rights of others. A man may be a gentleman and not a Christian, but a man to be a Christian must be a gentleman.

It is almost impossible for us who live in the world to distinguish clearly between the material and the spiritual, where the one leaves off and the other begins. Some years ago as a member of a church board I was appointed on the committee "For Spiritual Welfare."

I was almost in a panic. I could understand the work on the finance committee which attended to the raising of the money to operate the church, I could understand the duty of the committee in charge of the music and was very thankful that I did not have to deal with a choir of temperamental musicians and keep the peace, I could understand the duties of the committee in charge of the church building. But where was I to begin in taking care of the spiritual welfare of several hundred people?

You can put your finger on finance, and music and a building of brick and stone but where are you going to find the soul? Science has never yet divided the human body into its component parts and segregated the soul. Science never will. We can not even prove we have a soul. No soul has ever left its earthly habitation and identified itself to us and none ever will. We can not prove that there is a such a thing as a soul by scientific methods. Following this argument we might very well expect some of our legislatures to pass a law forbidding the teaching in our tax supported schools of any theory of a soul, because it can not be proven with a pencil on paper.

We know we have a spiritual side of life and that spiritual life means a soul and that the soul must be immortal. We know that the body we are using is simply a house for the soul and that as we get old the roof leaks, the doors creak and the wreck impends, but the soul simply leaves one abiding place to another.

We know these things because there is no such a reading out after God and in God reaching out for us. If our minds are always cluttered up with finances and music and church suppers and new buildings the soul hides in a dark corner and the spiritual committee has a very hard task. But if the church is occupied first in the welfare of its members, in the spiritual happiness of usefulness, we are able to have a very different feeling for that church. The Christian talks the matter over with God, he finds spiritual atmosphere in the church, he dreams dreams and sees visions and then the people with whom he is thrown look different. He does not see in them merely a figure of bones and meat and skin and muscles and nerves and hair and teeth, these become transparent and the soul shines through and illuminates the old house.

There is a story that from a certain church steeple there always show a mysterious light, an ineffable brightness as if the unknown were hovering over this sacred place. This light was only visible to some people and not to others. It was like the radio sounds which you hear when you are tuned in. You have to tune in if you expect to hear the music and see the radiance of the soul.

I can understand why going to church is an invitation to some people, their radio is not tuned to the soul vibrations.

Paul in his letter to the Galatians tried to make all this clear to the new church. The old Jewish laws were minute, categorical, ceremonial. They tried to regulate religion by law. There was no freedom of will. At this time the church was refusing to admit Gentiles to membership unless they first became Jews. He explained how the spirit, which is invisible and which can not be discovered by science, manifests itself in the lives of men. Paul said if you are looking for a spiritual man look for these qualities: "Love, joy, peace, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness and self control." Show me a man with these attributes and I will show you a Christian gentleman.

A senator of the United States in a recent speech said that the Creator has endowed us all with the right to eat and drink what we please. He is a wet. If the senator is going to quote scripture of the first man and woman in the garden of Eden. There was prohibition in the center of the garden where there was a beautiful tree full of beautiful fruit which the man and the woman were told not to touch. But the creator did not say that the man could not eat of the fruit. He did not take away the freedom of the soul. The fruit was forbidden. The first man and woman had not the self control to keep away from the forbidden and we have all been suffering from the same trouble ever since.

We hear much in these days about the excesses of our young people. I do not think they are nearly as alarming as pictured. In fact I can remember some of my own experiences in youth. We were not in the anxiety in that generation. But we were taught self control. We were shown the tree with golden fruit and told, "If you would happen to us if we ate of it. Self control was a part of education."

That is the trouble with our young people today. They are seeking a thrill. They want something with a kick in it. I heard a girl whisper to a friend the other day "He is handsome and as wicked as he can be." There was the thrill of the forbidden, the kick of playing with a fire and escaping unhurt, but they don't always escape. Sometimes there are ugly scars left.

Blessed is the community which has within its confines a church with a soul, a church where the light shines always up to the heavens, a church where the members in their lives show the attributes listed by a Paul, a church where Christian gentlemen worship and where self control and unselfishness mark the demeanor and show the abiding place of immortal souls. Such a church and such a membership will mark a Christian community.—The Republic Syndicate.

CLAIMED BRITISH FAILED TO RECEIVE SAFETY GUARANTEES

BORAH GROWS SARCASTIC OVER LATEST TURN IN NICARAGUAN SITUATION

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Following the national assembly in Laredo, the British charge, in the "Absence of guarantees" for their protection from the Nicaraguan and United States governments, Great Britain has decided, although reluctantly, to send a warship to the West coast of Nicaragua to stand by during the Liberian war.

American ship for El Salvador at Managua and the Nicaraguan government officials have been advised by the British charge in the Nicaraguan capital that such action was contemplated.

The British charge, Mr. E. H. Clark, said he was not sure if the British charge in Laredo, Texas, had been notified of the British charge in Managua, and if so, whether he could give guarantees for the protection of British lives and property, and he replied that he could not, owing to the complete support extended to the Liberians by Mexico and without immediate material aid from the United States.

The charge then was said to have called upon the American minister, informed him of his interview with Clark, and sought, without result, assurances of adequate protection for British subjects.

Commenting on the new turn in the situation, Secretary Kellogg in a formal statement declared that Admiral Latimer has been instructed from the beginning to protect foreign as well as American lives and property and is doing everything he can to do so.

State Department Silent
State Department officials declined to discuss the proposed British move further, but the announcement drew sarcastic comment from Chairman Borah of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who is opposed to the administration's Nicaraguan policy and whose committee planned further consideration today of his resolution proposing that its members visit Mexico and Nicaragua during the congressional recess to obtain first hand information as to conditions.

"Little Nicaragua, 600,000 people, trying to maintain its duly elected president," his statement began. "It is already surrounded by a naval force sufficient to reduce it to ruins overnight. In addition, we are informed that the British navy may move to the scene of conflict. There are a few Italians there. I suppose the Italian navy will cease its watch upon the Mediterranean and move to Caribbean waters."

The embassy communication crossed a memorandum sent from the State Department to the Embassy assuring the British government that American naval forces in Nicaragua would extend all proper protection and assistance to British and other foreign nationals in that country.

At the State Department it was said that the explanation of the sending of British warship to Nicaragua appeared "satisfactory." Reference was made to the fact that British and other foreign war craft were sent to Vera Cruz in 1914 at the time of American naval occupation of that city.

While officials declined to discuss the relation of the Monroe doctrine to the sending of a British warship to Nicaragua, it was clearly indicated that the movement was not regarded as a violation of that doctrine or as establishing a precedent.

By Associated Press.

London, Feb. 24.—The British government has decided to send a cruiser to Nicaragua as a "place of refuge" for British subjects endangered by the civil warfare going on there, it was officially stated today.

Dispatch of the cruiser, it is understood, does not indicate a departure in the fundamental British policy in Central America or a change in attitude toward the Monroe doctrine.

Definite decision to send a cruiser came after the British Charge d'Affaires in Managua notified his government that the American Minister could not guarantee to protect British lives and property in case of renewed street fighting.

Officials emphasize the British government's gratitude for the assistance given by the American government in the past in Nicaragua, and state that Great Britain will continue to rely on this assistance. It is presumed the cruiser will go to Bluefields on the Atlantic coast, where it will be available to British subjects in case of trouble.

TEXAS LEGISLATORS JOIN IN INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM HONOR MEMORY WASHINGTON

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 22.—The people of two countries today shook hands across the Rio Grande on the proposition that George Washington was a great man and the father of one of them.

Laredo, Texas, and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, were joint hosts to Governor Dan Moody of Texas, other state officials from both sides of the river, members of the Fortieth Texas Legislature and some 30,000 visitors.

"George Washington maintained in peace what he secured in war," Governor Moody told the throngs of people gathered on Laredo's public square in the semi-annual ceremony for the chief ceremony of the two Laredo annual celebration of Washington's birthday.

"Now after 150 years," said Moody, whose voice carried half way across the town from radio towers, "the government of our country has taken a typical American course."

Youngest governor made a stirring picture on the speaker's stand as he, with a clear cut and simple grave voice, offered the people of George Washington, "our statesman and premier citizen, as guiding lights for continued democracy."

Hundreds of main citizens of Nuevo Laredo listened intently and applauded with gusto as he finished. Moody had met at ceremonies on the international bridge this morning, Governor Porfirio Gil of the Mexican state of Tamaulipas, and Consul General A. P. Carrillo of Mexico, with headquarters at Sonora.

Two mile parade in which floats from numerous Rio Grande valley cities figured, preceded the Moody speech. An Indian pageant featuring an aboriginal attack on an early settler camp rounded out the morning program.

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 22.—The fourteen car special train carrying the entire Fortieth Legislature, Governor Dan Moody and other high state officials have into town early today for the international celebration of Washington's birthday.

"Spectacular" ceremonies, which some 30,000 people will witness, awaited the three hundred odd legislators, state officials and capital attaches, who were breakfasted at Fort McIntosh immediately after their arrival.

Governor Dan Moody was given a cannon salute as his car headed a line leaving the train for the fort.

Visitors all congregated at the international bridge at 9 a. m. to see Governor Moody as the representative of the United States meet Consul General A. P. Carrillo, representative of Mexico. Colonel Foy, commander at Fort McIntosh was to have General Almazan, commander of the Northern zone of Mexico, speeches of corresponding officials of both sides in order of descending rank likewise were arranged.

A reproduction of an Indian attack on early settlers, and the grand annual parade, one of the most spectacular in Texas, were to complete the morning program.

The Austin party, removed suddenly to an almost tropical climate where spring is blossoming or budding out, or whatever it does, found the beginning of its sojourn extremely diverting.

It is a mistake for the youth of this country to go to Europe for musical training. Madame Schumann-Heink told friends in Dixie. She believes there are better facilities for training in America.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Carrying a total of $63,400,957, the second deficiency appropriation bill was reported today to the House.

The measure has a two-fold purpose, the meeting of deficits that have occurred in current appropriations, and the supplying of funds for work that must be done before next year's appropriations become available July 1.

The major item of $37,200,000 would be for payment of pensions, principally those to Spanish war veterans.

With the exception of a special bill to be reported next week to provide funds for carrying out the first year's work on the administration of $200,000,000 public building program, the measure is expected to be the last appropriation bill to be presented to the present Congress.

Other items included: To increase the army's enlisted personnel from 110,000 to 117,000 by July 1, $1,100,000.

For purchase of 650 armored trucks and cars to safeguard mail deliveries against bandits, $500,000; and to pay for marine guard of the mails $342,500.

For rearrangement of world war veterans' graves in France, $64,953 is recommended with an additional $186,000 to purchase marble headstones and otherwise mark graves over seas. The bill also carries $50,000 to complete the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery.

INCOME OF BAYLOR ENDOWMENT IS USED
AID MINISTERIALS*ENDOWMENT FUND OF INSTI-TUTION BRINGS IN ABOUT $30,000 YEARLY

By Associated Press.

Waco, Texas, Feb. 21.—Income from the total endowment of Baylor university here is now consumed in free tuition allowed ministerial students and ministers' children. President S. P. Brooks announced in connection with the Baptist Conquest Campaign.

The endowment fund produces a little more than $30,000 a year and this is almost the exact amount represented by the fees which would be collected from the free tuition list.

Last year the university enrolled 2,356 students in its schools of art, sciences, law, education, music, commerce, business administration, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and nursing. It is one of the few universities among the denominations that extends the free tuition beneficence, and according to President Brooks, this is one reason the school is now in debt. He says he does not know how long the university can survive under this policy, while facing the necessity of paying for recently added equipment, unless the conquest campaign is successful.

"Universities are never able to live without endowments," said President Brooks. "Tuition will not pay salaries and upkeep expenses, much less by buildings, laboratories and libraries, and there is no exception to this anywhere in the world."

Among protestants entering the field of hospital service, Texas Baptist, with the founding of Baylor university in 1904, were pioneers. Their hospital in Houston was founded soon thereafter, and this was followed later by the Central Texas Sanitarium, at Abilene, Ft. Worth, Galveston and several of a local character.

Baptist hospitals are located in 14 Southern states, now numbering 28, with 3,495 beds. They cared for 117,575 patients last year. The hospital property is valued at $2,325,000. The present campaign is for $2,000,000 to pay off debts of the churches institutions.

TRIBUTE PAID TO JOHN F. TUCKER BY FRIEND OF YEARS

Corbett, Texas, Feb. 22, 1927.

To The Sun-Light:

I am asking a small space in your valuable paper to express my sorrow and grief at the death of my comrade and friend, J. F. Tucker, who passed away February 15th at 2 p. m. We laid him by his beloved companion in Campbell cemetery in his Confederate uniform of gray, and his cross of honor pinned on his breast and his favorite walking cane in his arms.

He was eighty-four years old, born and reared in Tennessee. He joined the Second Tennessee Regiment and spent the best part of his life in the service of his country. From 61 to 65 he fought from the Blue Grass region of Kentucky to the rice fields of South Carolina.

Shortly after his companion's death he united with the Methodist church and lived a Christian life until death and we trust that his soul is basking in the heavenly fields of a Confederate soldier's heaven.

Yes, we believe he has crossed that Great River and is climbing the banks of that foreign shore meeting hundreds of his grand old comrades, with flying colors, who have gone on before, saying "Comrades, we are all here."

He leaves four sons, two daughters, twenty-one grand children, and four great-grand children to mourn for him.

His pastor, Rev. Mr. Gardner, conducted the funeral services.

Farewell, friend and comrade, for a little while.

Respectfully,

ANOTHER TEST IS SPUDDING IN AREA SOUTH OF RICHLAND

SEVERAL OPERATIONS IN THIS COUNTY NEARING
PRODUCING DEPTHS

Rider et al. spudded in on the Van Hook No. 1 in the Richland County district Wednesday night and surface casing Thursday morning. This has been considered a successful test but due to the inconsistency of the production of the well it was not. Mr. Rider has heretofore posted the drilling of the well.

It is thought that the Woodbine sand will be productive between 2,500 and 3,000. However, the contract calls for a depth of 3,200 feet and will be drilled to that depth unless the oil sand is found at a shallower depth.

The Sun Company was drilling at 5,395 feet on the Swick C-1 in the Richland field in broken line Thursday morning. Foot by foot this well is becoming more a mystery, due to the unusual depth. Geologists, drillers and scouts are "at sea" as to what to expect as it is the deepest well ever drilled in Navarro county.

The Texas Company was re-cementing surface casing on the Cheney E-1, south of the Powell field Thursday morning, and was waiting for the cement to harden.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company was drilling at 1,665 feet on the Rufus Hardy tract in the Chambers Creek district and, according to a report from a reliable source, was in shale and oil. The Magnolia Stout No. 1, north of the Kerns road and about one mile west of the Chambers Creek was reported unofficially to have spudded in and are now waiting for cement to harden around surface casing.

Garland Kent stated that reaming was underway on the Kent Hardy No. 12 well in the Chambers Creek area to make a hole for eight inch casing. Good showings of oil were found in this well from 1,440 to 1,490 feet, but Mr. Kent said he thought that casing would be set above that depth. The Kent Hardy No. 11 has shut down for a while at 1,800 feet.

The DeArman Bros. went out to the field to drill plug on the T. G. Towns No. 1, across the road from the Hardy No. 11 Thursday morning. Casing was set at 1,244 feet.

PECOS COUNTY WELL INCREASED ITS FLOW PAST SEVERAL DAYS

San Angelo, Texas, Feb. 24.—Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Company's No. 2 Yates in Eastern Pecos county Wednesday increased its flow to 8,525 barrels daily from 3,892 barrels, the last previous gauge for 24 hours. The gain was without deepening and was attributed to greater gas pressure. The depth remains 1,661 feet, two feet in the pay.

Production is going into a 55,000 barrel tank, and Humble Pipeline Company is starting two more tanks of like size. The Mid-Kansas pipeline to McCamey is being rushed to completion and will deliver 5,000 barrels of oil daily to the Humble refinery there.

No. 2 Yates came in two weeks ago at 320 barrels an hour. The Gulf's pipeline from the McElroy area to the T. & P. railroad near Midland is near completion and will greatly relieve congestion in the Crane-Upton field.

FLOW OF UNIVERSITY LAND GUSHER WILL BE HELD TO STORAGE

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 24.—Flow of the Sims Oil Company Crane county gusher on Texas University land has been ordered limited to pipe line capacity to eliminate waste, H. E. Bell, head of the State Oil and Gas Division, today was notified by the company. A recent complaint charged that the well was drilled into a heavy producing depth without facilities for handling oil. Civil action for oil asserted to have been wasted may be brought, it is believed.

EMOTIONAL PLEA TO SAVE TEXAN FROM EXECUTION IN LOUISIANA REFUSED BY COURT

OIL OUTPUT GROWS IN SEMINOLE FIELD; EXPECT TO CURTAIL

By Associated Press.

Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 24.—Oil operators in the Seminole area today unanimously agreed upon a 30-day shut down plan to curtail production in the area to within pipe line and tank storage capacities.

The decision of the operators was reached after a two-hour session of the Oklahoma-Kansas division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association's executive committee. The session was attended by virtually every operator in the Seminole area.

The agreement, which goes into effect immediately, provides that only one well to each forty acre lease or single tract comprising less than forty acres, will be allowed to be pumped during the period.

Other drilling wells must be shut down until over-production has been brought to an end. Each producer also will be required to handle at least one-third of all oil he produces, running it into storage.

Tulsa, Ok., Feb. 24.—Seminole operators faced another day of waiting Wednesday while a committee of five, appointed at the session of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association executive committee Tuesday, worked out plans for a curtailment of operations in the area.

Doubt, however, still clouds the contemplated action of the operators and the extent to which curtailment may be carried out, this being principally up to the committee of five.

The operators Tuesday were unable to reach an agreement for the curtailment of operations, resulting in the appointment of the committee. The committee is to report back to the Mid-Continent committee Thursday.

Tuesday's drastic reduction in crude oil prices, inaugurated by the Carter Oil Company, and followed during the day by practically every major crude purchaser in the Mid-Continent area, was not discussed at the meeting, according to Chairman H. N. Cole, although this action was said to be the direct result of over-production of the greater Seminole field.

While it was conceded by all operators at Tuesday's session that greater Seminole is producing far too much oil, it was also pointed out that but few of the operating companies are experiencing very much distress just at present, since very little if any oil is now being run out upon the ground into earthen pits, as it was a week ago.

Several of the companies are filling their steel storage tanks at a much faster rate than they can be constructed, although an enormous tank building program is under way. As soon as the available tankage is full, which will occur in a few days, according to the present rate at which it is being stored, there will not only be genuine distress but a great waste of oil, one major operator stated at the close of the meeting.

While the owners themselves are holding closed conferences in Tulsa daily, and sometimes twice daily the production men in the field are going merrily forward.

Shooting and the application of air and gas pressure to the big gushers increased the field's output by 6,305 barrels during the twenty-four hour period ending at 7 a. m. Tuesday, while the previous day the increase totaled some 16,000 barrels more than the previous high mark attained on Wednesday of last week.

Greater Seminole field produced a total of 326,945 barrels of oil, according to Tuesday morning's gauge, from 243 completed wells. This is an increase of 6,305 barrels over Monday's output, when 320,640 barrels were produced.

Only one new well was added in the interim.

Muskies keep repairmen busy on dams and laterals in the Belle Fourche irrigation district of South Dakota, and the legislature will be asked to legalize a year-around open season on the animals.

Albany, N. C., Feb. 22. Rural labor shortage holds no horror for Farmer W. S. Kinney. He puts his geese to work.

Last fall he harvested nine 500 pound bales of cotton from ten acres "hoed" by three geese and 19 goslings. Up until then his neighbors laughed at him, but now they are seeking his "system."

Farmer Kinney waits until the cotton plants are big enough to be too tough to tempt the appetites of geese. Then he turns his "hoers" into the field to feast on grass and weeds.

By Associated Press.

New York, Feb. 24.—Resumption of bullish operations in industrial shares featured the opening of today's stock market. United States Steel, common, opened with a block of 4,100 shares at the "spread" price of 162 3/8 @ 162 1/4, a new high record, and General Motors opened with a block of 2,500 shares at 160, up one. Dupont, General Railway Signal and Texas Gulf Sulphur all touched new high records in the first few minutes of trading.

Some irregularity developed soon after the opening, when selling pressure was renewed against the railroads and some of the high priced industrials. Independent Steel, Marchandising, oil and copper shares gave fairly good demonstrations of group strength. Baldwin

United States Steel, common, opened with a block of 4,100 shares at the "spread" price of 162 3/8 @ 162 1/4, a new high record, and General Motors opened with a block of 2,500 shares at 160, up one. Dupont, General Railway Signal and Texas Gulf Sulphur all touched new high records in the first few minutes of trading.

Some irregularity developed soon after the opening, when selling pressure was renewed against the railroads and some of the high priced industrials. Independent Steel, Marchandising, oil and copper shares gave fairly good demonstrations of group strength. Baldwin

RADIO BILL GIVE FEDERAL CONTROL

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The 700 odd American radio broadcasters who daily and nightly fill the ether with an admixture of jazz, health and Bible talks, speeches, travelogues, operas and bedtime stories, are at last under the guiding hand of the Federal government.

President Coolidge late yesterday fixed his signature to the bill which establishes government control over all channels of interstate and foreign radio transmission and there remains only the selection of the five-man commission provided in the measure and Senate approval of its make-up before actual supervision of the air begins.

MUCH INTEREST IS EXPECTED IN CAGE TOURNAMENT YMCA

The feature sport even of the present week will be presented at the Corsicana Y. M. C. A. Friday and Saturday when the girls basketball teams of Navarro county clash in their county University of Texas interscholastic League to determine the county champion.

A large entry is expected for this event and plans have been made to care for a large entry. A number of the teams to compete in the county meet have been playing practice games on the Y. M. C. A. floor in order that they will be accustomed to the indoor court. The teams of the county play their contests on outdoor courts and are handicapped considerably when they transfer to an indoor court. Those teams which have practiced on indoor courts will have a decided advantage over those who have not.

The girls do not compete further than the county title. In former years, a State title was determined, but the interscholastic League has discontinued this practice.

All coaches are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon to draw for places and immediately after the places are drawn the tourney will start.

Games will be played Friday afternoon, Friday night, Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon and the finals Saturday night. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged to help defray expenses, including the employment of an out-of-town referee. One ticket entitles the holder to see all games of the day.

Sixteen teams are expected to enter and among them are Dawson, Blooming Grove, Purdon, Round Keren, Angus, State Home, I. O. O. F. Home, Emhouse, Petty Chapel, Navarro and others.

Director General Fletcher stated Wednesday that the winner of the tournament might go to Dallas later to meet of the Woman's Athletic Association.

New Move to Get Action Bonus Loans

Washington, Feb. 22.—A new move to get Senate action on the bill for government loans to World War veterans, which encountered a filibuster last night, was made today in the Senate.

Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, offered a resolution providing that the bill be considered for one hour Thursday. He indicated that he would ask for action on the resolution tomorrow.

The filibuster which prevented favorable action last night was aimed at the emergency officers' retirement bill which Senator Tyson, Democrat, Tennessee, offered as a rider.

ACTION ON COURT PROCEDURE REFORM BILL AGAIN BLOCKED

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 24.—Action on Woodward bill to liberalize the law as to methods of obtaining evidence was blocked again in the Senate today by speeches and proposed amendments, none of which reached a vote before the noon recess.

The bill would permit the introduction of evidence in criminal cases, even though such evidence was obtained on a faulty search warrant. According to Senator Woodward it is designed to reduce the number of acquittals of guilty men because of technical mistakes in drawing search warrants.

Legislators Against "Wallet Artists"

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 24.—A proposal to send pickpockets to the electric chair was coupled with the theory that law makers cannot function on empty stomachs, in a House bill prepared for introduction today by Representative Masterson of Angleton.

Seeking emergency passage, the bill relates that several members of the Fortieth Legislature have been victims of pickpockets and forced to go hungry "for several days."

Several Legislators were victimized by "wallet artists" on the Washington Day excursion trip to Laredo. One Senator lost a watch and $160 on the return journey, he told friends.

Moody Refuses to Pardon Foster Bell

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 24.—Governor Dan Moody has refused to pardon Foster Bell, convicted of murder in connection with the alleged Ku Klux Klan fight at Seely several years ago. S. J. D. Hall, assistant secretary, said today. Moody then district attorney in Williamson county, gained wide reputation for his prosecution of the case. Bell was convicted of assault to murder and murder and sentenced to five years in each case. The sentences are concurrent.

Application for his pardon was first sent to former Governor Miriam A. Ferguson months ago and signed by many citizens of Austin county. The present board of pardons recommended clemency be not granted.

Bell's conviction grew out of an alleged Ku Klux Klan feud at Seely in which he was claimed to favor the Klan. Two of his brothers were killed, as were two men of the other side, a letter seeking pardon for him declared.

HOPES SCRAPPED FOR AGREEMENT IN ARMAMENT LIMITS

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Italy, like France, has turned thumbs down on the American five-power naval limitation proposal and thus has apparently scrapped the hopes of Washington administration officials for a conference and ultimate agreement among the five leading naval powers for lighter battle craft restriction.

Since Japan has accepted the suggestion as originally advanced by President Coolidge, but with a stipulation that discussions not begin before June, in order for Great Britain to disclose her attitude on the extension of the Washington capital ship limitation treaty to cruisers, destroyers and submarines. On her position appears to rest the prospects for a three-power understanding or regional agreement to limit auxiliary armament.

Italian Reply Made Public.

The Italian reply, made public last night by the State Department, expressed that Government's unwillingness to discuss naval limitation alone, declaring "there exists an undeniable interdependence of every type of armament of every single power, and furthermore that it is not possible to adopt partial measures between only the five large naval powers."

"The Italian government," the reply added, "thinks that the limitation of armaments, to be efficacious, to the ends referred to by Mr. Coolidge, should be universal and recalls in this connection that the example of Washington was not accepted by the minor naval power

ers and that the conference held at Rome in February, 1924, for the extension of the principles of the Washington treaty to the powers not signatory thereto was a failure."

So blunt was the reply, in the opinion of some officials, that it appeared to leave little leeway for composing misunderstanding of the American proposal such as Secretary Kellogg has indicated he saw in the French refusal.

Immunity Bill Fails.

Washington, Feb. 22.—By a vote of 9 to 9, the House Judiciary Committee today failed to approve a bill which would have granted immunity to certain witnesses whose testimony is needed by government special counsel in the Sinclair trial which resumes here April 26.
